FLAMES BURN MAN AS HE OPENS DOOR INTO LIVING ROOM

G. Surbeck, 717 East 11th St., Suffers Injuries When House Ignited

TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL

Interior of Dwelling Damaged in Blaze Last Night, Is Report

Seared by a ball of flame as he opened the door from kitchen into his living room and scorched as he fought the dense smoke and flames through the room to the front door, G. Surbeck, 717 East Eleventh street, is today in the San Antonio Community hospital, suffering from burns received shortly after 7 o'clock last night.

An overheated flue is believed responsible for the fire which started in the living room. Mr. Surbeck, who lives alone, was working in the kitchen when he detected smoke seeping in through the cracks of the door between the two rooms.

Opening the door, the flames were given liberty by the draft and met Mr. Surbeck with serious burns about the head. Knowing the front door was locked, he fought his way through the smoke and flames and out of the house.

Treated by Dr. John Craig in the hospital last night, the wounds covered his face and head and extended over his shoulders and arms and hands. At the hospital today, he was reported suffering with severe pain, but his condition was not believed serious.

The fire was extinguished with water from a garden hose by neighbors although the Upland fire department responded quickly and assisted in the final fire fighting.

Interior of the two front rooms of the dwelling was damaged.

J. J. Atwood Store Becomes Scene of Remarkable Event

Among the several pleasant customs followed by the big Atwood store "family", is the inexorable rule that any member observing a birthday must stand treats for the entire force. Now it so happens that following in close succession four of the members, have admitted adding another year to their record, they being Miss Nelle Atherton, Mrs. Nell Samuel, Mrs. Mark H. Bailey and Mrs. Maud Brogan.

Taking advantage of the store being closed all day Wednesday to prepare for the annual January sale, the four birthday ladies schemed a big scheme and prepared for all the crew a luncheon such as never before had been served in the store.

Clearing one of the long counters, the "eats" were spread, the delectable viands being displayed in such abundance as to defy even the most sustained appetite. Two large percolators and two electric toasters did their part well and an inexhaustable supply of hot coffee and toast concluded the feast, which was enjoyed by 17 feasters, two or three outside husbands and sisters assisting in receiving the "treat."

R. C. Norton Will Speak on Thrift at P.-T. A. Meeting

R. C. Norton, manager of the the Upland branch, Bank of America, will speak on "School Savings" when he appears on the program to be given by the Tenth street Parent - Teacher association Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 14, at 3 o'clock.

January is being observed as "thrift" month by Parent-Teacher associations throughout the country and Mr. Norton has been asked to present the subject here.

Other special numbers on the program will be a piano solo by Dorothy Manley, reading by Miriam Settle, and violin solo by Miss Marion Short, instructor.

Mrs. H. J. Stickney, president of the P. T. A., will preside and the mothers of the fifth grade will be hostesses and will serve tea during the social hour that follows the program.

Egbert Adams Back From Foreign Trip With Good Report

Egbert Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Adams of Upland is back from South America, where he has been since Nov. 1928, with many facts and encouraging reports concerning conditions in the southern continent.

As a trade emissary for the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, Mr. Adams toured in Panama, the Canal Zone, Ecuador, Bolivia, Peru, Chile, Argentina and Brazil and he is convinced that Los Angeles and Southern California can find extensive openings for trade and manufacturing business.

His detailed reports of conditions and opportunities will be published in the L. A. chamber magazine and the results of his trip are expected to be felt by many southland establishments.

Mr. Adams will be here to spend the week-end with his parents, returning to Los Angeles Sunday evening.

Nearly 200 Los Angeles manufacturing concerns and individuals had requested that Mr. Adams make a special study relative to the possibility of extending their products in South America and his work in this survey brought him in contact with the leading officials of the foreign countries.

He spoke before many civic organizations on Los Angeles and its manufacturing business.

CITY WATER HEADS WILL ATTEND MEET

Riverside Session Monday To Hear of New Plan For Joining District

Members of the city council water advisory committee, in addition to R. G. Manley, city the meeting in Riverside Monday at which a proposal to form a water district including San Bernardino, Orange and Riverside counties will be discussed.

Proponents of the plan believe the three counties as a district can join the Metropolitan Water district, thereby eliminating the necessity of individual cities joining the district to obtain Colorado river water.

Mr. Manley said the proposal had been discussed previously among representatives of the various cities, but the Monday meeting will be the first time the public has been offered for public consideration.

When notified of the meeting, the city service manager informed members of the special water committee and it is understood several will attend.

Parking Is Watched With Interest Here

Merchants and policemen of Upland are watching with interest the reaction of businessmen and residents in general concerning parking in the downtown area.

An ordinance restricting parking to two hours was proposed, but dropped when protests were entered. It was then proposed that a courtesy tag be pinned on those cars parked over the time limit, the card pointing out that rights of others should be considered.

When the parking problem was considered fully, it was discovered that the most prevalent long-time parkers were businessmen and employes, who parked their machines in front of other than their business frontages.

20TH ANNIVERSARY OF CHAFFEY UNION TO BE CELEBRATED

Two Outstanding Speakers Are Engaged for Combined Event May 22

TO DEDICATE BUILDING

Junior Farm Center Fair Will Also Start on Day; Plans Announced

Announcement was made today of further steps in the preparation on the Chaffey campus in May for three outstanding events of great educational importance to all in the Chaffey district.

Twentieth anniversary of the forming of the Chaffey union high school district will be celebrated.

The new junior college building which is nearing completion will be formally dedicated.

The annual junior farm center fair will be held.

Date for the trio of events will be May 22.

Chaffey board of education this week approved the preliminary plan and Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal, told of two well known educators who will be here for principal parts on the program.

Tully C. Knoles, a graduate of 1895 of the former Chaffey college and now president of the College of the Pacific, has accepted an invitation to be here.

Hon. Vierling Kersey, state superintendent of public instruction, has also accepted an invitation to speak. Other outstanding educational leaders will be on the program.

An effort will also be made to bring together many of the Chaffey alumni and afford former students an opportunity to join in a home-coming.

While the new junior college building will be occupied at the start of school following Easter vacation, formal dedicatory exercises will be held on May 22.

That day, which is Friday, will also mark the beginning of the 1931 "world's biggest little fair."

In the spring of 1911, the union of Upland and Ontario high school districts was effected, making together the foundation of the present progressive Chaffey institutions.

Many details are to be completed in the celebration plans, but the acceptance on the part of the two speakers has given considerable impetus to the preliminary arrangements.

Converted Jew Heard by Large Audiences

Large audiences heard the addresses by Dr. A. U. Michelson, converted Jew, at the Brethren in Christ church Tuesday and Wednesday nights. He spoke to students of Beulah college Tuesday morning on the education of the Jewish children, pointing out that one requirement in the German schools is for them to learn for memory many chapters of the Bible.

"Jews and Jerusalem" was his topic Tuesday night and of special interest Wednesday night was the story of his life. He was educated in Germany for an official career and passed the examinations the highest of any student and received a diploma from the Kaiser. He practiced as a criminal lawyer for several years, until his health broke. At the time of the drop in value to practically nothing of the German mark, he was converted to Christianity.

Then he came to America as a professor of the German language and taught at the Rochester Theological seminary for a few years and then took up missionary work among the Jews. In 1928 he organized the Hebrew Evangelization Society with headquarters in Los Angeles.

540 Steel Lockers Ordered For Jaysee

Mrs. Grisham No. 1 in Chamber Of Commerce; Tickets Are Sold

Mrs. Bess K. Grisham is No. 1.

For the fourth consecutive year, this Upland woman has obtained membership card No. 1 of the Upland chamber of commerce. As each New Year rolls around, she calls and pays her dues for the ensuing year. Her 1931 membership has already been paid.

New membership cards are available and many are following the example set by Mrs. Grisham in paying the 1931 dues without notice of expiration.

Tickets for the annual meeting of the chamber of commerce will be at a premium if the demand for the pasteboards continue until Wednesday night. Only 250 tickets will be sold and Clair E. Kirk, secretary, has already received many reservations and made cash sales.

Appearance of Floyd D. Young, government meteorologist, as the principal speaker, is meeting with popular support. In addition to his address, a quartet of women singers will be a feature of the meeting to be held in the Upland Woman's clubhouse at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday night.

The chamber members are voting on candidates to serve as directors. Twelve men have been nominated and ballots sent through the mail. Six are to be elected and the new directors will be announced as a feature of the annual meeting.

RAIN SENDS 1931 STORM FIGURES UP

Several Feet of Snow Cover Old Baldy and White Blanket on Resorts

Rain figures for a year ago look insignificant compared to what the weather man has given for the 1931 record, Upland receiving 6.72 inches of rain this season.

Clear skies today looked down upon a drenched citrus area and several feet of snow on Old Baldy. Citrus growers are thankful for the water and hopeful of more rain.

One year ago J. R. Johnston, local weather observer, said the total rainfall was 1.70 inches.

The rain was general throughout the southland with Upland getting more than most cities, it is reported.

Snow from 4 to 6 inches deep covered the Camp Baldy district. At Snowcrest the white blanket was from 14 to 18 inches thick and Old Baldy was under several feet of snow.

Throngs of people are expected at the Camp Baldy resorts this week-end, many cars having already gone up the canyon. The road is cleared and travel is unhampered, according to reports from Camp Baldy.

Since Tuesday, Upland has received .86 of an inch and during the last 24 hours .17 of an inch of rain has fallen.

Following is the rainfall record for this season at other county communities: Alta Loma, 6.91 inches; Ontario, 5.12 inches; Camp Baldy, 7.62 inches; Chino, 4.83 inches; San Bernardino, 5.32 inches and Redlands, 5.10 inches.

DR. HILL TO GIVE COURSE AT U. C.

Will Go to Berkeley For Lecture Every Wednesday Is Plan

Dr. Merton E. Hill, Chaffey principal, has been engaged by the University of California to conduct a lecture course on junior college administration, it was announced today.

The course will be given on the Berekley campus Wednesday afternoons during the second semester and Dr. Hill will make the trip north Tuesday night and return Wednesday night.

The Chaffey board of education has given Dr. Hill permission to lead the course and his weekly trips to the northern institution will be started soon.

Manker Speaker on S. A. Canyon History

F. H. Manker, Upland city councilman and pioneer, was the speaker at the Claremont Kiwanis club Wednesday noon on the "History and Romance of San Antonio Canyon."

He was selected to speak on the subject due to his long residence in the district and active interest in the canyon projects. Clarence Fossett, Upland accountant, a member of the Pomona Kiwanis club, was also present.

Oscar Raser and Sarah Wolgemuth, Beulah college students, who underwent operations at the San Antonio Community hospital during the Christmas vacation, are able to be back in school.

STREET NAMING IS ONE STEP NEARER

Two Committees of Planning Commission Will Study Proposal Plans

One step nearer today is the progress being made by the city planning commission in proposing new street names for Upland traffic arteries, with two committees scheduled to be appointed to submit definite plans for consideration.

Plans "A" and "B" are under consideration and W. K. Beattie, chairman, is to name two groups of men each to work on a plan and present them in one month.

In regular meeting last night the commission considered the street naming problem and acted on two other problems.

Favorable action was taken concerning the zoning petition submitted by Euclid avenue property owners which calls for lots to be at least 150 feet wide, houses to be at least 75 feet back from the property line and that no two houses can be closer than 40 feet.

This is to apply, when duly passed by the city council for all property north of Fifteenth street, and it is the desire of nearly all of the property owners concerned.

Action also was taken fixing a set-back line of not less than 12 feet on the Foothill boulevard business zone, this zone not having been definitely set. A set back of 30 feet for buildings on Foothill in the residential zone also was approved. This zone includes the frontage from Mountin avenue to the extension of Third avenue.

Concerning the street naming proposals, plan "A" calls for renaming of the streets by numbers in consecutive order from A street north and renaming of the avenues, east of Euclid with names, first letter of which would follow the alphabet in going from Euclid to the east city limits.

Plan "B" calls for the streets to be consecutively named alphabetically from A street north and the avenues to be numbered from Euclid avenue east.

Each committee will work on each plan and an open discussion by the planners on both of the submitted proposals will be held Feb. 12.

Community Clubs To Discuss Orange Show

Mary Brainard Tent in Business Session

The Tent is preparing for an installation of officers some time in the near future, although no definite date for the event has yet been set.

AGED WOMAN, HURT IN FALL, HELPED BY UPLAND GIRLS

Mrs. Ella Romine, Aged 74, Sustains Broken Hip in Accident

FOUND LYING IN STREET

Misses Helen Taylor and Eula Mae Rose Hasten to Woman's Rescue

Found at the corner of East Ninth street and Campus avenue where she had fallen when stepping from the curb, Mrs. Ella Romine, 74 years old, was picked up at about 4:30 Wednesday afternoon by Misses Helen Taylor and Eula Mae Rose and taken in Miss Taylor's car to her temporary home at 972 East Ninth street, where it was found she had suffered a fracture of the left hip.

As the girls passed the street corner they saw the aged woman lying on the ground, unable to rise, and they hastened to her aid. Assisted by a man who did not give his name, Mrs. Romine was placed in the car and at her direction taken to the home of Miss Swope on East Ninth street where it is understood she had been staying as nurse and housekeeper.

With considerable effort the two young girls carried the injured woman into the house and put her to bed, in the meantime having called Dr. A. L. Weber. Upon his arrival the physician removed the patient to the San Antonio Community hospital where she is receiving treatment.

At the hospital Mrs. Romine gave her home address as 517 East F street, Ontario, where she lives with her sister, Mrs. George Johnson.

Dr. Weber stated this morning that considering her age and the nature of the injury, the patient is getting on very nicely. And she is not lacking in cheer, this being provided by a beautiful bouquet of flowers taken to her today by Miss Taylor.

J. W. McConkay Hears of Death of Sister

J. W. McConkay has received word from Harvard, Neb., telling of the death of his sister, Mrs. Inez Mills, who passed away Sunday. She suffered a stroke about four weeks ago, but was thought to be improving when she died suddenly.

Mrs. Mills visited in Upland in 1915 and three years ago Mr. McConkay visited his sister in Nebraska.

Fasti Coupon Sale Increasing Daily

The meeting will be for three days.

Wired Chair Gives Shock When Legion Men Push Buttons

It's an old game, but unsuspecting "brothers", visitors and entertainers fell for it in great fashion at the American Legion meeting Tuesday night.

Dry cell batteries can produce plenty of electricity when wired so that an occupant of a chair will get the full benefit of the current.

One by one as the late arrivals came, courtesy was shown and a certain chair graciously offered. The scene soon changed, however, with the pressing of a button. When one is sitting and suddenly an electric current is applied, action follows and the queer antics and expressions of the victims provided entertainment aplenty.

Little business was transacted during the meeting. The later it got, better was the performance on the part of the victims.

M. M. Barbour, Fontana, was one of the paid entertainers for the meeting. To properly present a reading, which he said was of a serious nature, he asked for a chair. This certain chair was offered. The reading was progressing solemnly and effectively—and then the button was pushed.

He didn't finish the reading.

Among the victims were Bill Kincaid, Veedor South, John D. Howe, Gene Nisbet, L. H. Cortright, Dwight Ellis, William Springer and Vernon Paine.

NATIONS LUNCHEON IS UNIQUE EVENT

Methodist Missionary Societies in Interesting Program at Church

A unique and particularly interesting affair, an international luncheon and program was given in Crowell hall Thursday by the two missionary societies, the home and the foreign, of the Methodist church when a number of local and out-of-twon speakers and musicians participated in the program.

All three of the women's organizations, the Ladies Aid, the Home Missionary and the Foreign Missionary societies held brief business sessions during the day, but the outstanding feature of the all-day meeting was the luncheon program at noon.

Six tables, seating 80 people, were decorated to represent six different nationalities, the flags of several nations, pictures and curios being placed about the hall to form a very attractive setting and impart a real international atmosphere. Mrs. F. C. Buffington and Mrs. Frank Richardson were the hostesses in general charge.

Mrs. W. F. Kitchel, as hostess at the Chinese table, introduced Miss Gei Wei Wang, a fellowship student at Claremont colleges, who spoke of the schools of her own country.

At the Japanese table Mrs. J. A. Stavely presided and spoke briefly of "Beautiful Japan." She then introduced Kyoko and Helen Shoji and Ada Okomoto, who, wearing native costumes, sang in Japanese, Mrs. Fannie Gay accompanying them. The three girls are students in the Upland junior high school.

Mrs. Mary Eckerman was hostess at the Alaska table, upon which was a realistic snow scene as part of the decorations. Mrs. W. H. Andrews told interestingly of her trip to Alaska three years ago.

As hostess of the India table Mrs. W. A. Getty introduced Mrs. Allen Foote, formerly Miss Ruth Byer, who has spent a number of years in the mission fields of India. In her address Mrs. Foote gave much interesting information.

Miss Hancox, presiding at the American Indian table had as guests the Rev. Floyd Burnett, director of religious education at Sherman Institute, Riverside, Miss Hough, supervisor of music, and two students, Mrs. Townsend, who sang two numbers, and Russell Moore who contributed a piano solo.

The Mexican table had as hostess Mrs. Harold Stickney, who spoke on "Mexico and the Mexicans in Our Midst," afterward introducing Mrs. Vera Valero, who delighted her audience with two vocal selections.

Chop suey was served as the one foreign dish. Mrs. W. W. Mather was the "chef" and many words of praise commending her skill were heard at every table.

PROTEST AGAINST PHONES MAY TAKE FORM OF PETITION

Leaders in Move Plan to Ask at Least 500 Families to Drop Service

HIGH RATES ARE BLAMED

Local Man Offers $1,000 as Start of Pool to Change Present Company

Agitation for the circulation of petitions among residents in the Upland district against the present rates of the Ontario-Upland Telephone company received new life yesterday and indications today were to the effect that something would probably be done soon.

One prominent man, identified with the citrus, business and civic life, offered to circulate a petition asking the signers to order their telephones taken out on the condition that at least 500 other persons would do likewise.

This same man, whose name he asked be not disclosed at present, also offered to place $1000 in a pool with which to establish a new company or to assist the city in taking over the communication service.

Preparation of such a petition was expected to be under way over the week end and its circulation may start early next week.

Sentiment over the new rates appears to be growing as the second issuance of bills since the increase is being received. A number of changes in service have been ordered by local subscribers and those most agitated expressed confidence that 500 names could be obtained in a short time on such a petition.

A report that telephone rates in the Alta Loma district were not increased was also circulated and this added strength to the local sentiment against the present charges. An attache of the telephone company, however, explained that the Alta Loma rates had been increased, except that service classified as "suburban service."

Purpose of those preparing to circulate a petition was to protest against the present rates and seek a return to the former rates. In the agitation against the company, the protestants do not place any blame for the present condition on Charles L. Tuttle, local manager, but look to the officials of the parent company of the local concern.

Neighbors Woodcraft Plan Installation

Practice for the public installation of officers to be held on Wednesday night, Jan. 21, featured the regular meeting Wednesday night of Upland Circle No. 899 Neighbors of Woodcraft. The installation is planned to follow the regular closed lodge meeting and probably will start about 8:30, a cordial initation being extended to the public to attend.

At the meeting Wdnesday night the drill team did splendid work, winning high praise from Miss Eula Campbell, guardian neighbor of the Ontario circle, she and several of her members being guests of the local circle.

The next two weeks will be a busy time for the circle members. They have received an invitation to and several of them plan to attend the Arlington circle installation on Tuesday, Jan. 13. On Jan. 15 many of the members will go to Anaheim where the local drill team will assist in installing officers in the Anaheim circle. Again on Jan. 19 they will respond to an initation to attend the Riverside installation. And in the meantime they will be preparing for their own installation on Jan. 21.

Today's Bible Verse

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.—1 Cor., 3:16-17.

Accidents Cost Country Millions

The price that is being exacted by waste, loss, injuries and fatalities incident to motor vehicle traffic is clearly too high. The country paid last year an estimated sum of $3,000,000,000 as waste and loss in connection with this traffic.

This loss, if evenly distributed, amounts to approximately $25 for each American citizen and member of his household. It is three times the amount of the annual salaries of the teachers in the public schools, and about one-half more than the entire sum that is being spent every twelve months for the maintenance of the public school system.

It is three-fourths of the costs of all of the activities of the Federal government, twice the costs of all of the activities of the state governments, exclusive of road building and maintenance, and one-half the cost of government for all of the local, municipal, county, township, village and special jurisdictions in the country.

This sum approximates the interest on the combined funded debt of the Federal government and all of the states and municipalities in the country. It is equal to two-thirds of the annual operating costs of all of the railroads of the country, and to four per cent of the estimated total annual income of the American people.

In the face of the magnitude of this loss it becomes important that the civic business and public interests should lend the most practical, constructive and determined effort to the solution of the traffic problem.

The American home is directly concerned in this situation. It is perhaps the greatest sufferer, economically and socially, from the 31,000 lives a year that are being snuffed out in traffic accidents. Within the family circle are the heartaches and hardships that come with traffic fatalities and injuries, and only too often in the removal of its means of economic support and maintenance.

The railroads have contended with the burden of the traffic problem, through grade crossing accidents, almost from the advent of the first automobile. This burden has now expanded and reached into every phase of the nation's economic activity. Grade crossing accidents still are a vital yet comparatively limited part of the whole problem.

Well, "Sunny Jim" Rolph is now at the helm as governor of this great state of California. It's up to the new governor to transmit some of that sunshine to his constituents. A lot of 'em have been hanging onto Old Man Gloom until they can't see the sun when it does shine. What they need is an injection of optimism into their system. There are a lot of folks who have heard so much wailing about hard times they actually believe they are hard up. They are the same fellows who thought they were so much richer than they were about two years or so ago when the tide of prosperity was supposed to be at its highest point. Now they have switched to the other extreme. All they need is to "hit a happy medium" and things actually seem to have taken a turn in that direction. Optimism is getting to be the rule; people are realizing that hanging onto their money means hard times and are spending more freely. You spend with the other fellow and that enables him to buy something you have to sell—whether it be labor, food, clothing or some other commodity.

Did you ever speak a kind word to a stray dog, pat him on the head and notice how he "warmed up to you." He's ready to follow you from that minute and wants to be your friend. And did you ever try the same thing on a human being? They react in the same manner. However, there are too many people who will make friends with a stray dog and then pass up a fellowman who would appreciate a little friendly greeting and attention. What's the use in being a "high hatter," anyhow? The fellows who feel they are too good to speak to "ordinary folks" don't get half as much pleasure out of life as those who greet everybody in a pleasant way. Because you are fortunate in possessing more of this world's goods than someone else don't signify you are any better. As a rule, however, the "high hatter" isn't the one who really has reason to be proud of himself—it's usually the fellow who is trying to make the world believe he's something that he is not.

The battle against smudging is again on. And we guess it's all right to get rid of the smudge—if there is any possible way of doing it. It should be understood that the kick is not against orchard heating—but against smudging. If heating is necessary to save the citrus crop, then heating should be done. Also—if there are a lot of ranchers who have inefficient heaters in their groves they should replace them with heaters that are efficient—which will not smudge, or cause the least possible smudge. The citrus industry is the "life blood" of our district and should have the greatest consideration possible. However, we believe the damage done in Upland by smudge so far this season has been caused by smoke coming in from other districts and has not been the result of heating in local groves.

He Got Disillusioned

Hemet News: A graduate of a well-known university appears to be a disgusted and disillusioned young man. He went to college with the expectation that it would perform a miracle, that it would endow him with the ability to get money, big money, easily, comfortably and without too much effort. The world, he realized, was his oyster but he needed a knife to open it with. His diploma was to be that knife.

He studied hard, piled up his credits, accepted his sheepskin and walked confidently out to offer his services to the highest bidder. But there were no bidders. There were some hard-boiled employers willing to give him a job at the bottom where most young men without family influence have to start. But he could have had that kind of a job without going to college. He is now four years late in his start.

So this young man is quite indignant. He even gets his cry into the newspapers. College, he says, taught him a lot of high-falutin' nonsense, but neglected to furnish him with the magic key to success without working for it.

It is quite evident that this young man merely got into the wrong college. He should have enrolled in one of these correspondence schools and his fortune would have been made the day he got his diploma from the postoffice.

Scotty Still Puzzles 'Em

Puente Journal: Some people are born showmen. Walter Scott, better known as Death Valley Scotty, is such a person. With all his mysterious talk about a wealthy mine and his outward appearances of money-to-burn, Scotty has woven a legend about himself and the Valley that years will not erase. Does he own the immense mansion which sprawls over half a mountain? Or is he merely the caretaker of this residence, as one of the natives is quoted as saying? Why has he hired special cars to break railroad speed records across the continent? When will the enigma of Death Valley Scotty be solved? These questions, and hundreds of others about this noted character, will be solved some day when a ruthless reporter or two get on his track.

One Good Boy

North Hollywood News: Believe it or not, we know one college student who doesn't drink, swear, smoke, gamble, or waste his time. He teaches a Sunday school class, dances, swims, and is good company. And this mention is merely for inspiration to those who think such a state of affairs is impossible in this age of flaming youth.

Makes Liars of 'Em

Hemet News: General hard times have a tendency to discourage men who used to boast of what they made. They have turned to the pastime of lying about the amount they lost.

Letters to The News

Think It Over

Under the above heading B. H. Miller of Alta Loma sends The Upland News a communication regarding the smudge situation. Mr. Miller was formerly an engineer by profession, was in the employ of the Standard Oil Co. in New York, has had fifteen years experience on oil burning vessels and would therefore seem to speak with authority on the subject. He says:

As usual about this time of year the annual smudge or orchard heating subject comes into print. Committees are appointed by the various clubs, societies and so on, to look into the matter and formulate some plan to stop the use of orchard heaters that throw off soot and smoke.

We have not heard of any committee being appointed to curb the north wind which brings in tons of dirt, depositing it throughout tthe country, to say nothing of cluttering up lawns, taking trees out by the roots, breaking down telephone and power lines, unroofing buildings, and last, though not least, stripping citrus trees of leaves and fruit.)

But to get back to the serious subject of smudge, we'll admit that there is room for vast improvement over the present method of orchard heating. We have various types of heaters in use that the manufacturer claims is smokeless. But we have yet to see one heater that comes up to the claims of its maker. In tests made by the navy and other persons of authority in the burning of oil, it has been found that the most perfect form of combustion will throw off a slight brown haze and will leave some soot.

If, in looking over the various types of so - called smokeless heaters that are used for demonstration you will notice that the heater is always new; therefore clean of sediment and soot; that the oil has been put in just recently; therefore it is thoroughly mixed.

The demonstrator then lights it, makes necessary adjustments and you have an almost smokeless heater, we all agree.

But, take this same heater, use the same oil and place it in a grove on the fifteenth of November. Let it remain there until just before Christmas. Your oil has settled, the lightest portion is on top, while some has evaporated. Now let your demonstrator light the heater, adjust it, and you will still have a nearly smokeless heater. But let the heater consume the oil to a little below the half-full mark; then put out the fire and examine the heater. You will find great gobs of soot around the base of the stack. The oil will be thick and gummy.

Light the heater once again and from now on till the heater is burned out you will not be able to keep it from throwing off smoke and soot.

Orchard heating with oil is passing through the same phase of development that we of the merchant marine had to contend with when ships were changing from coal to oil-burners. During the evolution of the of installation were tried out. present method of burning oil as fuel on shipboard many types Improvements, one after another, were made until today there are several types that are very efficient.

And such is the case with orchard heating. Improvements are being made every year. We believe that the smudgepot, NOT heater, should be eliminated. The users of such smudgepots should be given a limited time to change to more efficient methods of heating their groves. What is needed is a good heater with a low initial cost.

Suppose that we were not allowed to heat our groves and were frozen out. Think of the thousands of men and women who would be thrown out of a job. Think of what those thousands of people mean to our merchants of various sorts. The citrus grower would not be the only loser.

Think it over.

Do you think that the citrus grower heats his grove for the pleasure of it?

Do you know that we, too, on ranches have homes equally well furnished as those of the cities?

Do you know that we, too, must roll up our rugs, take down our curtains, and cover our books when smudge time comes, just the same as you who live in the cities?

Well, think it over.

B. H. Miller

CUCAMONGA WORKS ON SHOW EXHIBIT

James Sharp Plans Interior of Persian Palace as Annual Entry

CUCAMONGA, Jan. 9—An interior of a Persian palace is the theme to be used as the basis for this community's entry in the National Orange Show, and men of Cucamonga are working toward the completion of one of the finest exhibits ever presented.

As usual Judge James Sharp is the master behind the plan and it is the exception when his Orange Show exhibits don't win either first or second money.

He has drawn a sketch of the proposed exhibit, which will carry out the theme of the Orange Show at San Bernardino next month. A pergola, effective display of lights, and a careful arrangement of oranges will be included in the exhibit.

During Cucamonga's past six years of exhibiting more than $2,000 have been won and a prize in keeping with this record is expected.

ALTA LOMA

ALTA LOMA, Jan. 9—Mrs. Jess Martin, San Bernardino road, has been suffering from an attack of flu and at the same time an ulcered tooth. However, she is much better now.

Mrs. George S. B. Ferguson, Hellman avenue, spent the day in Glendora Thursday with Mrs. M. M. Jamison, who is sailing on the S. S. Malola Saturday for Honolulu.

Mrs. Robert Nesbit entertained at tea Mrs. B. H. Miller and her house guest, Mrs. William Schnase, who is visiting in the southland from Drumheller, Canada.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Brown, Cucamonga, is expected to return not later than today from St. Joseph, Mo., where he attended the funeral of his father. The latter also was a deputy sheriff and was killed while on duty.

Mrs. Mary Reid, assisted by her daughter, Miss Gertrude Reid, will reopen the sessions for the Cucamonga Woman's club at their home on North Hellman avenue, today.

Miss Bess Beekman rturned Sunday morning from Arizona, where she spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Emory Barkow, who are staying there for the present.

Mrs. Emma Campanella has sold her home on Foothill boulevard and is moving to Ontario this week-end.

Old friends of Miss N. Benjamin are glad to welcome her back to Cucamonga again. Miss Benjamin lived here several years ago and was connected with the First National bank.

Since the smudge there has been quite a bit of the flu going around, but it is pleasing news that Mrs. Ray Ford is up and about again; also that Miss Edna Patterson is much better, though still unable to be around.

Mrs. J. Bice has had a bad case of tonsilitis at her home on Amethyst street.

Robert Nesbit, manager for the Cucamonga Growers Fumigation and Supply company, reports that approximately 300,000 gallons of oil have been sold to the growers of the Alta Loma district this year. While this is more than sold last year, it is not unusual for most years.

Christian Church, Ontario, Sets Goal For Stellar Year

"A Stellar Year" is the ideal set by the First Christian church in Ontario for 1931. The inspiration for the ideal was found in the Christmas story of the Wise Men, whose explanation for their journey to Bethlehem was "We saw His star and are come to worship Him."

The ideal for the new church year was unanimously adopted at the annual meeting of the congregation held last week; and it includes six certain goals, each suggested and urged by a certain fragment of scripture.

"If 503 Prayed" is to be the topic of the minister, Shirley R. Shaw, next Sunday morning, in presentation of the first of these six goals, which is Daily Devotions, inspired by the word of Christ, "Abide in Me."

Through Education, Friendly Evangelism, Genuine Stewardship, Magnanimous Missions, and Generous Service are the other specific goals to be dealt with on successive Sunday mornings.

On Sunday evenings prior to the holiday season a series of messages on the character of Christ was given by Mr. Shaw. During January he is bringing the series to its closing climax. Last Sunday great interest was manifested in the address upon "The Authority of Christ." Next Sunday evening he is to speak on "The Claims of Christ", and the last of the series will present "The Compelling Love of Christ."

Music has been playing a large part in the life of this church during the recent weeks. The holiday seasons were appropriately and impressively observed. Special features are provided for every hour of public worship, always including spirited anthems by the large vested chorus choir.

Seen From a Chaffey Window

By One of the Faculty

Next Monday night the Junior College students are celebrating the successful football season with the football squad as their guests at the annual football banquet.

The Hawaiian trip, the attentions there received, and the glamour and romance of the islands are quite in contrast to the routine of daily work.

The members of the fortunate squad will justify the trip by fine achievement during the coming months.

Attendance at Chaffey is back to normal after many absences due to work in the citrus orchards, and home activities during the holiday season.

Grades are due in a few weeks, and many New Year resolutions for closer attention to study are in evidence. May the good resolutions last through the year, and for years and years.

As the News goes to press the high school basketball team is playing at Covina. The game was to determine whether or not Chaffey will be a serious contender for the league championship this season.

Tomorrow evening the Junior College team plays its first conference game of the school year.

Last year Chaffey won the Southern California championship in both high school and junior college competition. The competition will be very keen this season, and the basketball fans are assured of good games. Here's success to both teams.

Chaffey is celebrating this year the twentieth year of her history. During following weeks we will see the Chaffey window some of the significant events, and pictures of some of the builders of Chaffey during the past two decades.

AUTO CARAVAN IS VIEWED BY CLUB

Lions Hear Description and See Pictures of Club's Motor Tour

How the caravan of the Auto Club of Southern California linked together the western hemisphere during the excursion this spring into Mexico and the results experienced were verbally and pictorially described by Roscoe Goodcell at the meeting of the Lions club in The Sycamores at noon yesterday.

Paving the way for a well constructed International-Pacific highway through Mexico and into South America, the club's caravan made "impassable" roads and created an interest in road building that will eventually result in Mexico City and Southern California being linked closely together, he said.

The caravan Mr. Goodcell discussed started from Los Angeles in March and toured over all kinds of roads to reach Mexico City. Nearly two months were consumed on the trip. After describing some of the conditions and emphasizing the wonderful hospitality accorded the party, Mr. Goodcell presented moving pictures of the autos and the men on the trail-blazing journey.

Dr. C. E. Gregg was chairman of the meeting, and J. Emory Sargent, president, presided.

Ralph Almquist presented a craft talk preceding Mr. Goodcell's address. He described the vast enterprise of the Ford Motor Car company in providing raw products for the car production. Mines, forests, plantations, railroads and steamship lines are included in the properties of the company in the work of producing Fords.

Mr. Almquist said that 50 hours is the cycle of production of a car, from the raw product to delivery to the dealer, about half of this time being used in transporting the car from the factory to the dealer.

Mr. Goodcell recognized the interesting address of Mr. Almquist and pointed out that all the cars used by the club in its caravan were Fords.

Mrs. Kelley: "You think so much of your old golf game that you don't even remember when we were married."

J. J.: "Of course I do, my dear,; it was the day I sank that thirty-foot putt."

Salvage Shop in Need of Stock to Meet Big Demand

The Salvage shop is in need of stock.

This announcement made yesterday by Mrs. Maude Grahame who is in charge, should gain the attention of everyone in this community who is interested in welfare work.

Perhaps at no other time in the history of the shop has there been so great a need for the service it renders the community.

Just now there are many families here who cannot afford to pay full price—or even half price—for many of the necessities yet they do not want to accept charity. There is no other place in the community that can sell these used household articles and clothing as cheaply as can the Salvage shop and daily people in real need come to the shop with their scant funds to purchase the things they must have.

And if the necessities are not found at the shop, then they must be supplied in some way by the community.

Mrs. Grahame is receiving many calls for various articles and this would be a very opportune time to go through the closets and attics and storerooms for outgrown clothing, bedding no longer used and odd pieces of furniture and other household articles that have been discarded. This is an easy way to help others to help themselves.

If anyone has contributions they find inconvenient to deliver, Mrs. Grahame will be glad to call if notified.

Rabbit Fanciers Convene Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hobbs of West street, will meet in Pomona tonight with other rabbit fanciers in the Pomona valley. The Pomona Valley Rabbit club will convene in the Washington Park community clubhouse at 7:30 o'clock. A speaker representing the Los Angeles County Farm bureau will be present.

One of the busy enterprises in Upland is the Hobbs rabbitry from which is sent every month shipments of rabbits to Pennsylvania where they are sold for breeding stock. Mr. Hobbs also supplies several local meat markets and furnishes stock to other breeders in the district.

Firemen's Wives Club Is Entertained at Cabin—

Notwithstanding the threats, or rather the promises of rain Wednesday morning, several members of the Firemen's Wives club motored up to their favorite rendezvous, the firemen's cabin in San Antonio canyon, and as guests of Mrs. L. N. Kirk enjoyed a happy meeting.

Well-Known Opera Critic Presents Musical Program—

The Home Inn at the head of Euclid avenue, conducted by Evelyn Miller, was the scene Sunday afternoon of a delightful musicale when the number of guests and friends of the hostess enjoyed a program presented by Carl Bronson, well-known grand opera critic of Los Angeles, and a group of special entertainers. Ford Bros. Music Co. of Ontario kindly furnished the piano for the afternoon entertainment.

Besides the houseguests, there were a number of week-end guests out from the city and dinner was enjoyed in the evening following the musicale.

Large Audience Hears Delightful Program at Club Meeting

A truly delightful program was enjoyed Tuesday night when a large attendance of the membership gathered in Crowell hall for the January dinner meeting of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club, Mrs. L. D. Temple and Boris Cherbak appearing as entertainers, Mrs. Temple giving personal reminiscences of the early life of Rudyard Kipling, English poet laureate, and Mr. Cherbak contributing musical numbers.

The committee sponsoring the successful meeting included the two January birthday members, Mrs. Nora M. Eells and Mrs. Oscar Gaither, and the club program chairman, Miss Margaret Wardlaw. Mrs. Gaither was responsible for the tables and she achieved a charming effect in an artistic arrangement of flaming poinsettias and Scotch heather. Mrs. Eells served as program chairman and presented the several numbers with clever introductions.

Mrs. Ernest C. Olson, club president, handled the gavel during the evening in her usual efficient manner. As the meeting was called to order Mrs. M. H. Bailey read the club collect and the very excellent dinner was served to the accompaniment of animated conversation.

Between courses Mrs. Eells called for current events and Mrs. Temple responded by giving a most interesting account of the very generous and successful efforts made by the organization of university women of the United States to make it possible for the English university women to attend the international convention in this country next summer.

During the brief business meeting the minutes of previous meetings were read by the secretary, Miss Gladys Riley, and the president announced the appointment of Mrs. Bess Grisham as hospital chairman and Mrs. Olive Mellon as chairman of the finance committee.

Mr. Cherbak, accompanied at the piano by Miss Margaret Rowland, presented two delightful numbers, first whistling "La Golondrina" and then singing Schubert's beautiful "Ave Maria", and the persistent applause ceased only upon Mrs. Eells promise that Mr. Cherbak would sing again later in the evening.

Then came the fascinating story of Rudyard Kipling as told in entertaining manner by Mrs. L. D. Temple, who saw the then young author and his wife practically every day while living in Brattlesboro, Vt. Giving intimate family history little known by admirers of Kipling of the present day, Mrs. Temple revealed that the poet's wife was a Brattlesboro girl, member of a prominent family there. She told of Kipling's unmerciful persecution by a brother-in-law, a black sheep ruffian of the otherwise cultured family, that eventually forced his removal to his native England, thus losing to America a great author and poet.

From the time of their marriage Mrs. Kipling established a "protectorate" over her husband, shielding him from all unnecessary public contact, according to Mrs. Temple, and it was due to her habit of closely watching all material discarded by the poet that his famous "Recessional" was rescued from the wastebasket.

Closing the program, Mr. Cherbak again sang, this time the beautiful and stirring number, "On the Road to Mandalay" and responding to an encore with the delightful little song, "In a Little Spanish Town."

Mrs. Cherbak also was a guest of the club.

Past Presidents Will Be Honored Tuesday

Following the regular program which will start at 1:45, the Drama section will put on a comical skit, the principal characters of which will be Mrs. R. C. Norton and Mrs. Leon Durham.

Miss Grace Adsit Is Guest of Friends

Miss Grace Adsit, former resident of Upland, arrived here on Tuesday at noon and is being greeted by scores of her friends. Miss Adsit was prominent in social and club circles when she lived here, having been a member of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club in the early days of the organization when it was known as the Upland Business Women's club, and she had the pleasure of attending the dinner meeting of the club on the evening of her arrival.

Miss Adsit has been away about two and a half years, most of the time having been spent in Atlanta, Ga., with her uncle and aunt. Before coming west she spent a few months with her brothers in New Jersey and in Chicago.

Miss Adsit will remain in Upland for a week or two visiting with her friends and she expects later to locate somewhere in Southern California. This week she has been entertained by Mrs. George L. Winter and Mrs. Hattie L. Irvin, and will spend the weekend with Miss Dorothy Ruth.

Mrs. Craig Hostess to Frances Paul Girls—

The scheduled speaker having been prevented at the last hour from attending the meeting, the Frances Paul Girls dispensed with all plans for a program and enjoyed a pleasantly informal social evening when they met Wednesday night as guests of Mrs. John B. Craig at her home on West Tenth street.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Craig were Mrs. C. W. Hawks, Mrs. A. J. Neilson, Mrs. D. R. Foss, Mrs. Mildred Puckett, Mrs. R. B. Bordwell and Mrs. Floyde L. Atwood.

A brief business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Paul Adams and plans for future activities were discussed.

Some time was spent in visiting and merry chatter and closing the meeting the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Lester P. Jones, leader; Mrs. Jack Cunningham, Misses Marie and Lucille Jones, Miss Margaret Brest, Miss Elizabeth Wright, Misses Eunice and Etta Lindsey, Miss Dorothy Miller, Miss Viletta Hutchinson, Miss Vonetta Eastlack and the hostess, Miss Evelyn Swoap.

MRS. L. L. LORBEER TELLS OF INDIA

Presbyterian Women Hold All-Day Meetings and Hear Speaker Tuesday

Both the morning and the afternoon meetings of the Presbyterian women's organizations held at the church Tuesday, were very beneficial as well as very interesting.

With the president, Mrs. K. W. Fuller, presiding, the Ladies Aid society met at 10:30 in the morning and an inspiring devotional service was led by Mrs. Elizabeth Moore. During the business session plans were made for a food sale to be held on Saturday, January 24, Mrs. J. F. Hamilton being in charge.

An election of officers is to be held in March and the nominating committee was named at this meeting, the members being Mrs. T. W. Nisbet, Mrs. R. C. Norton and Mrs. Bess Jones.

A basket lunch which was really a very enjoyable indoor picnic, was served at the noon hour and afterward Mr. and Mrs. Leon Durham and Miss Bertha Palmer drove to Claremont to bring over Mrs. Lloyd L. Lorbeer, missionary to India, who was scheduled to speak at the afternoon session of the Woman's Missionary society.

Opening the meeting at 1:30, the president, Mrs. D. H. Ward, conducted devotional service in which the opportunities and the obligations of the new year were stressed.

Mrs. Lorbeer, who with her husband has spent 14 years in the southernmost part of India, then spoke of the missionary work being done in that country. She is a fluent speaker, presenting her subject in a very careful, conservative manner, yet with a vividness that creates intense interest.

Mrs. Lorbeer, who is a daughter of Mrs. J. G. Henry, is superintendent of a school and "compound" in which she cares for 350 boys and girls. She gave many enlightening facts about the customs and development of the people in that part of India which is but eight degrees north of the equator. The section is semi-arid, all water being obtained from wells and sometimes in hauled for long distances in ox carts.

In speaking of the hospitalization work, Mrs. Lorbeer mentioned a leprosy hospital about 40 miles from her school which is supported by a Soutnern California organization and in which many cases of leprosy are successfully treated.

Mr. Lorbeer is supervisor for about 45 such schools as Mrs. Lorbeer conducts and which receive substantial aid from the British government.

150 EXPECTED AT WALTONIAN MEET

California Council Will Convene First Time After Reorganization

Nearly 150 persons are expected at the meeting of the state council of the Izaak Walton league in The Sycamores Tuesday night.

This will be the first meeting of the group under this name and will include delegates from the various chapters of the league throughout the southland.

Previously the organization has been known as the Old Baldy council of the league, but in a reorganization plan the new name was adopted along with the establishment of councils in each county.

Dave L. Vasbinder is president of the state council and Leigh Thompson is secretary. Three new chapters have been formed since the last council meeting and representatives from this group are expected.

Mr. Vasbinder pointed out that the Waltonian membership has increased steadily in spite of the depression and that the California rate of gain is larger than the national rate.

33,000 Tourists Enter State in December

Motor tourists from other states and countries crossing the eastern border to Southern California numbered 33,260 during last month, according to estimates made by the Automobile Club of Southern California touring bureau.

Checks made by the border stations of the state department of agriculture, located at Blythe, Needles, Fort Yuma and Yermo, showed 11,469 out-of-state cars came into this section during November. The figures indicate an average of 2.9 persons per car.

First Scrubbing in 2 Years Given City Reservoir on 22nd

One of the city's reservoirs on Twenty-second street got its bath this week.

Covered and virtually air tight as it is, the reservoir is clean year in and year out, but just to remove whatever oil and foreign substance that might have collected, city workmen gave it a scrubbing for the first time in two years.

First Building and Loan Association In America Was Organized on Jan. 3, 1831

(No. 1 of a Series)

Turn back the world a century. It is the night of January third in the year 1831. ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO! The night the first building and loan association in America was formed.

Through that cold, clear winter's night . . . ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO . . . a number of men came to the tavern of one Thomas Sidebotham, which was in Frankford (now a part of Philadelphia). Thirty-eight in all made up the company . . . thirty-eight sturdy pioneering sort of fellows. They were called together by a certain Isaac Shallcross who, together with four others (including a doctor, a lawyer and two small manufacturers) became leader in a movement to enable each of these men to throw off the yoke of the landlord and to raise a roof of his own over the heads of his family. There was drama that night . . . the simple, unconscious drama of great accomplishment.

Let us picture the scene . . . the rude room of the tavern . . . the jovial proprietor, old Thomas Sidebotham, bustling about, delighted with this night's business. Tall uncertain shadows hover beyond reach of the candlelight that gives yellow illumination to determined faces, to an all-important document, to a patient quill pen awaiting opportunity to aid with the signatures. All but one could sign his name.

It was agreed each should pay five dollars into a community fund. Thereafter every month the sum of three dollars would be paid toward an ultimate accumulation which, with profits added, would total five hundred dollars. This was enough to buy or build a comfortable dwelling in 1831.

HOOP PLAYERS AT JUNIOR HIGH BUSY

Two Teams Will Be Entered in Two Leagues With Prospects Bright

Basketball is claiming the athletic attention of the Upland junior high school students and two teams will be entered in the Chaffey district league, the teams to be coached by Edwin Dean of the physical education department.

An eighth and ninth grade quintet will play and the first game will probably take place Monday afternoon, having been postponed from yesterday afternoon.

In the ninth grade league will be two Chaffey freshman teams, Fontana, and Upland while the eighth graders will consist of Upland, Ontario, Fontana and possibly Etiwanda.

In practice games both of the local teams have won and Coach Dean is encouraged over the showing of the aspirants in the regular practices on the dirt court on the junior high grounds.

John Meek is captain of the ninth graders and Ed Kilpatrick has been named by his team mates as the eighth grade leader. On the ninth grade quintet are Denzil Dearney and Fred Zimmerman, forwards; Clarence Drake, center and John Meek and Howard Roberds, guards.

Mr. Dean has not taken over full charge of the eighth grade squad and did not venture to name any of the likely players, other than Captain Kilpatrick.

Games will be played at least once a week during the season.

DIST. GOVERNOR VISITS ROTARY

Arthur S. Crites of Bakersfield Congratulates Upland Club on Activities

The visit of District Governor Arthur S. Crites of the Second district of Rotary clubs to the Upland club on Tuesday evening was one of the high spots of the year for the local organization. Mr. Crites made a wonderful impression upon club members in his speech at The Sycamores, giving them many valuable pointers regarding Rotary and inspiring them to further activity and enthusiasm. The work of the local club in the Boy Scout work among the Mexicans was lauded by Mr. Crites as one of the outstanding pieces of work among Rotary clubs of the district.

Mr. Crites stated that this district, the largest in Rotary, is rated by the Rotary International as the outstanding district of the entire organization. He also stated that it was largely through California that Rotary began its phenomenal growth. The second and third clubs were organized in San Francisco and Oakland respectively, after which increase was rapid.

President E. C. Mehl was in charge of the early part of the meeting, later turning it over to A. C. Reynolds as program chairman. Mr. Reynolds had arranged a number of questions and answers tending to show that the new members of the Upland club are better informed in Rotary than some of the older ones. These created much merriment and also brought out many of the good qualities of the organization.

Preceding the meeting officers, directors and heads of the various committees met with Mr. Crites and talked over matters of interest in the organization and were given valuable pointers by the visiting governor.

The annual convention of the Second district will be held at Catalina on May 6, 7 and 8 and this is expected to be the outstanding meeting of the kind held thus far in this district. A considerable number of Upland members are expected to attend the program and social events of the meeting.

CANDIDATES NAMED FOR STUDENT BODY AT CHAFFEY HIGH

Cucamonga and Upland Are Represented in List of Nominees

John Merkel of Cucamonga is among the candidates for president of the Chaffey union high school student body as the result of nominations being held yesterday. Conrad Stroh and Robert Graber are also candidates for the highest executive position, now held by Dave Meek of Upland.

Eldon Naftel, of Upland; Leila Frost, Etiwanda, and Geraldine Smith are nominees for vice-president. Gloria Foss, another Upland student, is a candidate with Helen Smith of Ontario for the office of secretary.

Wanda Oswald is to be the next student body treasurer, she being the only one nominated.

Jack Frankish, Wayne Terry and Jack Main are candidates for yell leader. George Cumming is the only one seeking the office of editor of the Tatler, the school paper. John Freeman and Robert Majors are candidates for the office of advertising manager.

Other names were offered in the nominations yesterday, but certain scholastic requirements barred several from entering the race for the political positions.

Plans For Parish Dinner Made by St. Mark's Guild

With the recently elected officers serving for the first time, St. Mark's Guild held the first meeting of the new year Monday afternoon in the Parish house, the official staff including Mrs. A. J. Colgan, president; Mrs. W. S. Avery, vice-president; Mrs. C. O. Deverts, secretary, she having served in that capacity for 10 years, and Mrs. George Gregg, treasurer.

During the business meeting the greater part of the time was devoted to perfecting arrangements for the annual parish dinner to be given Thursday evening, Jan. 15 in the Parish house. The dinner is given by the members of the Guild as a courtesy to all the members and attendants of the church.

The meeting Monday afternoon closed with a pleasant social hour and the serving of refreshments.

The invitation to the Guild meeting was written in clever verse and sent to all the members, and an equally clever verse was received in reply from one of the members whose identity remains unknown. Because of the splendid sentiment expressed and the inspiring ideal revealed, both verses are given here.

The Invitation

On Jan. 5 in Nineteen Thirty-one
The Women's work will have begun,
And if each one will do her part,
She will find comfort in her heart.
So come and bring your dues, we ask,
And help to carry on the task.
Don't lend your ears to growls and barks,
Come, help us work for dear St. Mark's.

The Reply

Let good resolutions hold full sway,
For St. Mark's Guild will meet today,
With "all for one and one for all,"
In, rain or shine, whate'er befall,
Let us work together, a friendly band,
Shoulder to shoulder and hand in hand,
Our friendships loyal, our motives true.
To the "growls and barks" a lusty shoot\
Our "work and dues" will have their meed,
But love divine is what we need.

Herb: "Because they cover up a lot of the old familiar joints."

BILLY'S UNCLE

Dairies Rate High In Quality Product, Surprise Test Shows

Excellent condition of the market milk supply in the Upland and Ontario district was revealed in the results of the surprise milk contest just finished by the bureau of dairy control of the state department of agriculture.

Grading of milk produced by all the dairies supplying this district averaged 93.2 per cent. The market milk control work is under the direction of Dr. C. L. Emmons, Ontario city health officer; C. A. Perrin, dairy inspector, and H. R. Stanford, laboratory technician. Basis of the rating is the bacteria count and quality of the milk.

Those in charge note that people are more and more relying on the milk contests to guide them in the use of milk and the results of the contest have encouraged people to use more milk, it is said. Due to the high quality of the local milk and to the new knowledge of food value in this product, milk is taking a prominent place on the diet in the average family, Mr. Perrin explained.

R. P. Gingerich and George L. Hessler, market milk specialists, were in charge of the contest. Following are the results:
